

COMPUTABILITY ON FAMILIES

M. Faizrahmanov

Abstract

The present talk aims to consider the notion of a generalized computable numbering as a uniform enumeration of sets of a family relative to an arbitrary oracle. We consider the properties of Rogers semilattices of generalized computable families, such as their cardinality, latticeness, distributivity, the existence of extremal elements, etc.